The Stud Dog must be entered in the Stud Dog Class and shown in the ring with his Get. Get only will be judged on the merits of the Get. While the merits of the Stud Dog are not to be considered in the placement of the entry, the Stud Dog must be examined to determine if it has a condition that would require its disqualification or excusal under the Dog Show Rules, AKC policy or the standard of the Breed.

Brood Bitch Class: Same as Stud Dog but substitute Brood Bitch for Stud Dog and Produce for Get.

Generations - For three dogs, regardless of sex, of three successive generations (grandparent, parent, offspring). Most Versatile Belgian Malinois Award

Qualifications for Most Versatile Belgian Malinois Award:

Dogs must participate and earn points in at least three of the following five venues:

- Tracking on Sunday April 8
- Agility on Tuesday April 10
- Obedience or Rally on Wednesday April 11
- Herding Trial 2 (Malinois only) on Thursday April 12 ONLY
- Conformation (National Specialty & Sweepstakes) on Saturday April 14

A dog may be entered in more than three venues. The single highest point value earned in each venue will be used in tabulating the points earned for that venue. Example: Dog A wins the Excellent A Regular Standard Agility class (5 points) and Double Q's in Excellent Regular Standard and Regular JWW (7 points). Dog A will be awarded 7 points not 12. The dog with the highest combined total score for all venues will be awarded Most Versatile Belgian Malinois. Reserve Most Versatile Malinois will be awarded to the second place finisher.

Membership in the ABMC is not required. However, the dog being entered must be a Belgian Malinois. For further information, please contact Janet Doerer (jdoerer@gmail.com, cell 908-303-5544.) Make sure to fill out the Most Valuable Malinois form for each dog (forms will also be available at the host hotel by Saturday evening April 7). The MVBMA Chair Janet Doerer will track the results based on the Show / Trial Secretary information. The Award will be presented at the banquet on Saturday April 14. The winner of the award need not be present to win. If the winner is not present, awards will be mailed.

Prizes:

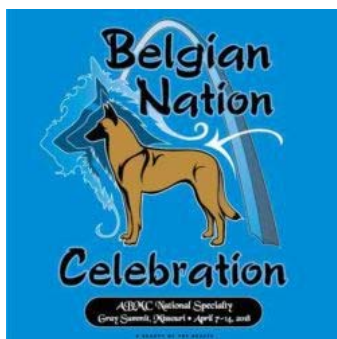

Most Versatile Malinois will receive a rosette and prize with a value matching that of Best Of Breed. Reserve Most Versatile Malinois will receive a rosette and prize with a value matching that of Best Of Opposite Sex. All dogs that qualify in at least three venues will receive a rosette and a certificate honoring their achievement.

For example, in a tie, a dog that had earned points in all five venues would win over a dog that had earned points in only three venues. If a tie still exists, all point values earned in each venue would be combined and totaled for each dog with the highest total score being the winning dog. For example, a dog that had earned a High in Trial in Obedience by winning the Novice B class would count 7 points for High In Trial, plus 3 points for winning Novice B, plus 2 points for qualifying In Novice B. In the event the dogs were still tied after this tally, ABMC would recognize that an absolute tie occurred and dual awards would be given.

NOTE: Entries in Barn Hunt, Scent Work, Dock Diving, the Regional Specialty, ATTS Test and Entries in Sunday April 8 Agility trial are not eligible for the Most Versatile Belgian Malinois Award Points.
